

The Sir Cyril Taylor Memorial Scholarship for Study in the US 2024 Institutional Recipients

California State University, Los Angeles

Cal State LA stands as the foremost comprehensive public university in the vibrant heart of Los Angeles, committed to fostering engagement, service, and contributing to the public good. Our distinction is underscored by being ranked number one in the United States for the upward mobility of our students. As a testament to our dedication to diversity and inclusivity, Cal State LA proudly holds the designation of a federally recognized Hispanic-Serving Institution, Minority-Serving Institution, and Asian American and Native American Pacific Islander-Serving Institution. We embrace and celebrate the rich tapestry of backgrounds, creating an environment that empowers and uplifts every student.

Contact: Matthew Walters, matt.walters@calstatela.edu, Director, International Programs Office

College of Southern Nevada

The College of Southern Nevada is the largest and most ethnically diverse college in Nevada, we've made it a priority to provide an affordable, collaborative, and welcoming environment that allows all students to shine. CSN is a fully accredited institution offering hundreds of degrees and certificates in 70 academic programs. Here, you will become part of a learning environment that offers affordable, quality programs in a values-based teaching environment with room for academic and personal development so you can achieve, succeed and prosper.

Contact: Maret Matthew, maret.matthew@csn.edu, Assistant Director, International Enrollment Management & Global Operations

College of the Canyons

College of the Canyons is located in sunny S. California with access to the beaches, mountains, and lakes that represent some of the most beautiful places in the world. Plus, we are just a short train ride from Los Angeles for the culture and fun that a large city offers. For students from the UK College of the Canyons offers top level access to athletic placements at top Universities in the USA. Through 2+2 California students can complete their general education requirements, hone their athletic skills, and make a plan for their academic and sport futures at College of the Canyons.

Contact: Dr. Tim Honadel, tim.honadel@canyons.edu, Director, Office of Int'l Servs. & Progs.

Everett Community College

Description coming soon.

Contact: Ali Soltanshahi, asoltanshahi@everettcc.edu, Executive Director, International Education Center

Fork Union Military Academy

Fork Union Military Academy is one of the leading college preparatory boarding schools in the USA based on the structure and discipline of a military academy system. We offer in-person education for boys in grades 7-12th and postgraduates in the wonderful village of Fork Union—in the heart of central Virginia. We offer high-quality academics and athletics built on a foundation of traditional core values that helps build character development, self-discipline, responsibility, and leadership development skills.

Contact: Jackie Montero-Sharpe, monterosharpej@fuma.org, Director of Enrollment Management

Husson University

Husson University is a vibrant private university located in Bangor, Maine. Founded in 1898, Husson University prides itself on providing students with experiential education that allows them to enter their professional careers with hands-on and global experiences. With bachelors, masters and doctoral degrees available, Husson allows students to achieve their career goals at multiple levels. Additionally, Husson offers NCAA Div III athletics.

Contact: Kimberly Odusami, odusamik@husson.edu, Director of International Initiatives

Ohio Northern University

Ohio Northern University (ONU) is located in one of the safest places to live in the United States. Our campus has many top-ranked programs. We have most recently been recognized for teaching quality, high graduation rates, and our 96 percent job placement rate. ONU remains as devoted as ever to developing students who are ready to immerse themselves in high-impact learning, with more than 60 programs to choose from in our five colleges: Arts & Sciences, Business, Engineering, Pharmacy and Law.

Contact: Tom Siferd, s-siferd@onu.edu, Director of International Admissions

Peralta Community College District

The Peralta Community College District is, a two-year community college district located in California's San Francisco Bay Area. It consists of four individual colleges: Berkeley City College, Laney College, Merritt College, and the College of Alameda. PCCD provides a diverse range of educational opportunities, including associate degrees, vocational programs, and transfer pathways to four-year institutions.

Contact: Thomas Torres-Gil, Ttorresgil@peralta.edu, Director of International Education

Shoreline Community College

Founded in 1964, Shoreline Community College is a public accredited college located in the vibrant Greater Seattle area with spectacular natural scenery and world-class companies surrounded. Shoreline is among the top 15 community colleges in the U.S. for international student enrollment (IIE Open Doors data) with over 700 international students from 65 different countries. Shoreline offers 2+2 University Transfer, High School Completion program, ESL program, Professional/Technical programs, Overseas Online Learning, and a Honors College program.

Contact: Sarah Stackhouse, sstackhouse@shoreline.edu, Sr. Associate Director of International Outreach

SUNY Oswego

SUNY Oswego is one of the best comprehensive universities in the country. Recognized for excellence and value, Oswego is known for its extraordinary faculty, its welcoming atmosphere, and its reputation for producing fiercely loyal alumni. Located in upstate New York on the shores of Lake Ontario, Oswego students are serious about their studies while still being outgoing and curious about everything. We value diversity and making everyone feel included, and our community is all about building long-lasting connections between students, faculty, staff, and alumni who are all excited to be involved. Founded in 1861, today we offer more than 70 undergraduate majors and minors, and 40 professional and innovative master's programs, each designed by devoted faculty to offer a deeper understanding to students searching for personal and professional advancement.

Contact: Joshua McKeown, joshua.mckeown@oswego.edu, Associate Provost for International Education and Programs

Temple University

Founded in 1884, Temple University attracts some of the most diverse, driven and motivated minds from across the nation and around the world. Located in Philadelphia, Temple, a top ranked national R1 Research university empowers students to explore, discover and transform curiosity into action with more than 160 undergraduate majors across 17 schools and colleges. Home to more than 33,000 students, Temple offers the advantages of a large research institution and the individual attention of a small college. Students are immersed in a dynamic and nurturing learning environment with the support of a renowned faculty, academic advisors and a broad curriculum of more than 640 academic programs. Temple's NCAA Division I athletic programs and nearly 400 student clubs and organizations also thrive on campus. No matter their background, Temple students—nicknamed Owls—are drawn to the university's vibrant Cultural Heritage City location. Temple also offers a gateway to the world with international campuses in Tokyo and Rome as well as study abroad opportunities across the globe.

Contact: Peter Lundbye, peter.lundbye@temple.edu, Director for International Admissions

Towson University

A nationally recognized leader in inclusive excellence, Towson University is a welcoming community for living and learning, and an important anchor institution for the greater Baltimore region. TU is the second largest university in Maryland with its student body reflecting the diversity of the state with 52% of students representing underserved racial and ethnic groups. Enrolling students from more than 80 countries, TU fuels every student's drive, growth and greatness. No matter who you are, where you come from or how you identify, you'll find success at Towson University.

Contact: Christopher Powers, cpowers@towson.edu, Assistant Vice President for International Initiatives

University of California, Riverside Extension

As a proud member of the world's most prestigious public university system, UC Riverside both embodies and empowers the California Dream. Located in Inland Southern California, tomorrow's leaders come together today, finding new ways of thinking, doing, and achieving to make a difference in an increasingly multicultural and interconnected global society. At UCR, belonging, motivation, and sustainable progress for students, the region, and the world is real — and really important. We're among the top 1.3% of universities worldwide, according to the Center for World University Rankings, and have been named the nation's leader among public universities for social mobility by U.S. News for four of the past five years. Off-campus, our more than 26,000 students and 1,100 faculty have access to our region's diverse geography, from the desert to the coast, as well as Riverside's vibrant cultural and recreational activities.

Contact: Cynthia Welle, cwelle@ucx.ucr.edu, Director of Strategic Partnerships

University of Nebraska, Omaha

The University of Nebraska at Omaha (UNO) is a Metropolitan public and research university centrally located in the U.S. with a student population of over 15,000 with 600 international students from countries around the world. UNO equips students with the knowledge and skill to address real issues, providing relevant learning opportunities that uniquely prepare graduates as professionals and active members of their community. UNO International Programs (INPR) seeks to diversify the international student population by targeting recruitment efforts to UK students eager to pursue higher education in the United States and offering financial aid opportunities for admitted UK Students that identify as underrepresented and disadvantaged.

Contact: Julie Jimenez, jsadofsky@unomaha.edu, Assistant Director for Global Grants