

Who attends the AIRC Conference?

- AIRC members (Certified agencies, institutions, pathway programs & partners, affiliated institutions, associated organizations)
- Sponsors (contact Mike Finnell at Mike.finnell@airc-education.org to learn about sponsorship opportunities)
- Representatives of non-member accredited academic institutions, non-profit organizations, and government agencies
- Recruitment agencies or educational representatives may not attend the AIRC Conference unless approved for AIRC Certification. For the purposes of AIRC membership and certification, an agency is defined as an organization, company or association that recruits and places students into accredited colleges, universities and other educational institutions on a commercial 'fee for service' basis. The term 'fee for services' refers to any payment made by an institution or an individual student applicant to an agency for services related to the counseling advice, application process and acceptance into a course or program in an educational institution. Individuals that provide placement services but have not established a company or individuals within an agency, including but not limited to shareholders, owners, directors, counselors and other staff are not eligible for AIRC certification or membership or to attend the AIRC Conference.

AIRC reserves the right to decline registrations that do not fall within eligibility rules.
